Starting from the hamlet of Canareglia at Madonna dei Monti, take the military road S531 up to the Alpe di Solaz where you can enjoy wonderful views over the Valfurva. From here continue along path S5151, mostly flat but with some uphill stretches, which leads to the junction with the trail up to the Alpe Ardof. From the Val d'Ardof, after a difficult descent, it joins bridleway S529 from the Val Zebru'. Continue to the Ponte Delle Tre Croci and the parking area of Niblogo. From here walk along the paved road through the village of Madonna dei Monti back to Canareglia.

Madonna dei Monti. This is a hamlet and a parish in the Valfurva with some 900 inhabitants, consisting of nine settlements extending from 1,400 m to 1,700 m in altitude, on the sunny righthand side of the valley above where it joins the Val Zebru'.
