Start from parking area P12 Pont de Rez in Trepalle and then take the western slope: the trail takes you to the bridge connecting the houses of Campacc to Arne'ira. From here path N129 goes gently uphill through a beautiful forest of mountain pines to Tee de Pila. This stretch offers fine views of the whole town of Trepalle and Val Tort. It then continues to the small bridge under which flows the Tre'la stream and joins path N136. After the initial steep section the path levels out to Boche'ta de Tre'la.

Tee de Pila The Tee de Pila are a cluster of scattered 'tee' overlooking the residential area of Pila, a slope cultivated for forage facing Trepalle, where the Val Tre'la and Val Tort intersect. In summer the 'tee' are largely inhabited by shepherds.
