From Bolladore you reach Villa Manara via paths S492 and S494. The mule track begins alongside a mountain hut situated at the foot of the pine forest. The track climbs steeply and diagonally to the left up to Mot de li Scoa where there is a fork with the path from Mondadizza. Via large bends and through thick forest you reach the meadows and the huts of Cece' Bas then Cece' Alt. From here you have a full view of Sondalo and its surroundings and of Alta Valtellina up to Bormio.

Mondadizza This is the location of the largest industrial area in the municipality. The parish church is a harmonious building that dominates the town and is built on an earlier, smaller church of which only fragments of frescoes remain, attributed to Valorsa. At the entrance to the village is the Church of Saint John.
