From the village of Baita Noa in Valdidentro, the starting point for crosscountry skiing trails and the location of the Biathlon Centre, you head west for a little over a kilometre on the bike trail until you reach the junction with path N282 up to the mountains of Fochin. Take the trail which ascends quite steeply through woods. After the Fochin Valley there are a few bends until the path meets the cable car up from Isolaccia to the village of Conca Bianca. From there a flat path N284 traverses Monte Masucco until you reach al Forte, where you can visit the Paluaccio Nature Reserve and the Oga Fortress.

Biathlon in Valdidentro. The only facility of its kind in Lombardy, the shooting range consists of 30 electronic silhouettes with targets at 50 m from the firing points. It is regularly tested and hosts events at national and international level.
