From the parking area near the playground at Santa Lucia, proceed south along the via Fumarogo. After passing Dosso continue along the forest track to La Ronca. You join path N276 for a short distance then rejoin the forest track. Near Presurina take path N277, passing a few clearings and the picnic area, until you reach Calosio where you can see some typical mountain huts. From here the track winds through dense woods to emerge outside of the hamlet of Oga. Continue towards the centre of the village to join up with path N280 and, continuing to the right, head to the Costa del Madrecc and subsequently to Osteglio. From here the walk continues along the via Fumarogo until you return to your starting point.

The colours of the mountain The path runs through thick forests that alternate with green meadows and wide clearings where you can find typical mountain huts, offering lovers of mountain scenery the chance to get in touch with the surrounding nature.
